

BIG INDUSTRIAL PROJECTS MADE POSSIBLE SOON

The property consists of 35 acres in the district west of Kahoalua, just Ewa of the Oahu railroad property between the road and the Standard Oil plant. All of it borders on the site of the proposed Kalihi channel, the project which is now up before the authorities in Washington. The project already has been given the approval of the war department engineers and it likely will be under way in a short time.

The completion of the channel and the construction of a harbor will give the inter-island company possession of a tract of great commercial value. Not only will it be able to keep its repair shops and docks there but in case of congestion will be able to dock small freighters there, thus reserving larger wharves nearer downtown for bigger vessels.

The inter-island by this deal has acquired a frontage of more than 1600 feet on the proposed channel.

The announcement today is the culmination of negotiations which have been going on for two years. Since the first move was made for the dredging of the channel it is understood the inter-island company has made advances for the property. Every step has been taken with great secrecy, however, and it was not until a few days ago that it was known even by men on the inside who the prospective purchaser was.

Even today the shipping officials were reluctant in discussing their plans.

IOWA SENATOR IS INTERESTED IN TERRITORY

Cummins On Alert, Says Senator Clark in Letter to R. W. Breckons

Senator Cummins of Iowa, noted Republican and generally acknowledged to be among the presidential possibilities for 1916, is much interested in Hawaii and on the congressional party trip here will make a special effort to inform himself on conditions here.

This news comes in a letter from Senator Cummins to Clark of Washington to R. W. Breckons. Incidentally, it indicates that though Senator Clark is unable to come here on the congressional trip, he appreciates the desire to have him as Hawaii's guest. The letter says:

"Washington, D. C., March 6, 1915.
"Mr. R. W. Breckons,
"Honolulu, Hawaii.

"My Dear Mr. Breckons:
"I want to acknowledge with a great deal of pleasure your letter of February 25th and to thank you for the very kind expression therein personal to myself.

"I have been hoping for some time that I would be able to visit the territory during the present spring or summer, but find that I shall be precluded from taking the trip. Nothing would please me better than to be there for a good rest-up and to renew old acquaintances and possibly make some new ones. Among the most pleasant recollections of my life are those connected with my two former visits to the island.

"Among the members of the congressional party who are planning to visit you this spring is Senator Cummins of Iowa, who has talked with me frequently about the territory and is very much interested in its welfare. You will find him a man not only of wide information but impressed with the desire to do whatever is for the best interest of the community.

"I hope you will remember me kindly to all my friends and with my best personal regards, I am,

"Yours very sincerely,

"C. D. CLARK."

RECIPES OF OUR PIONEER MOTHERS

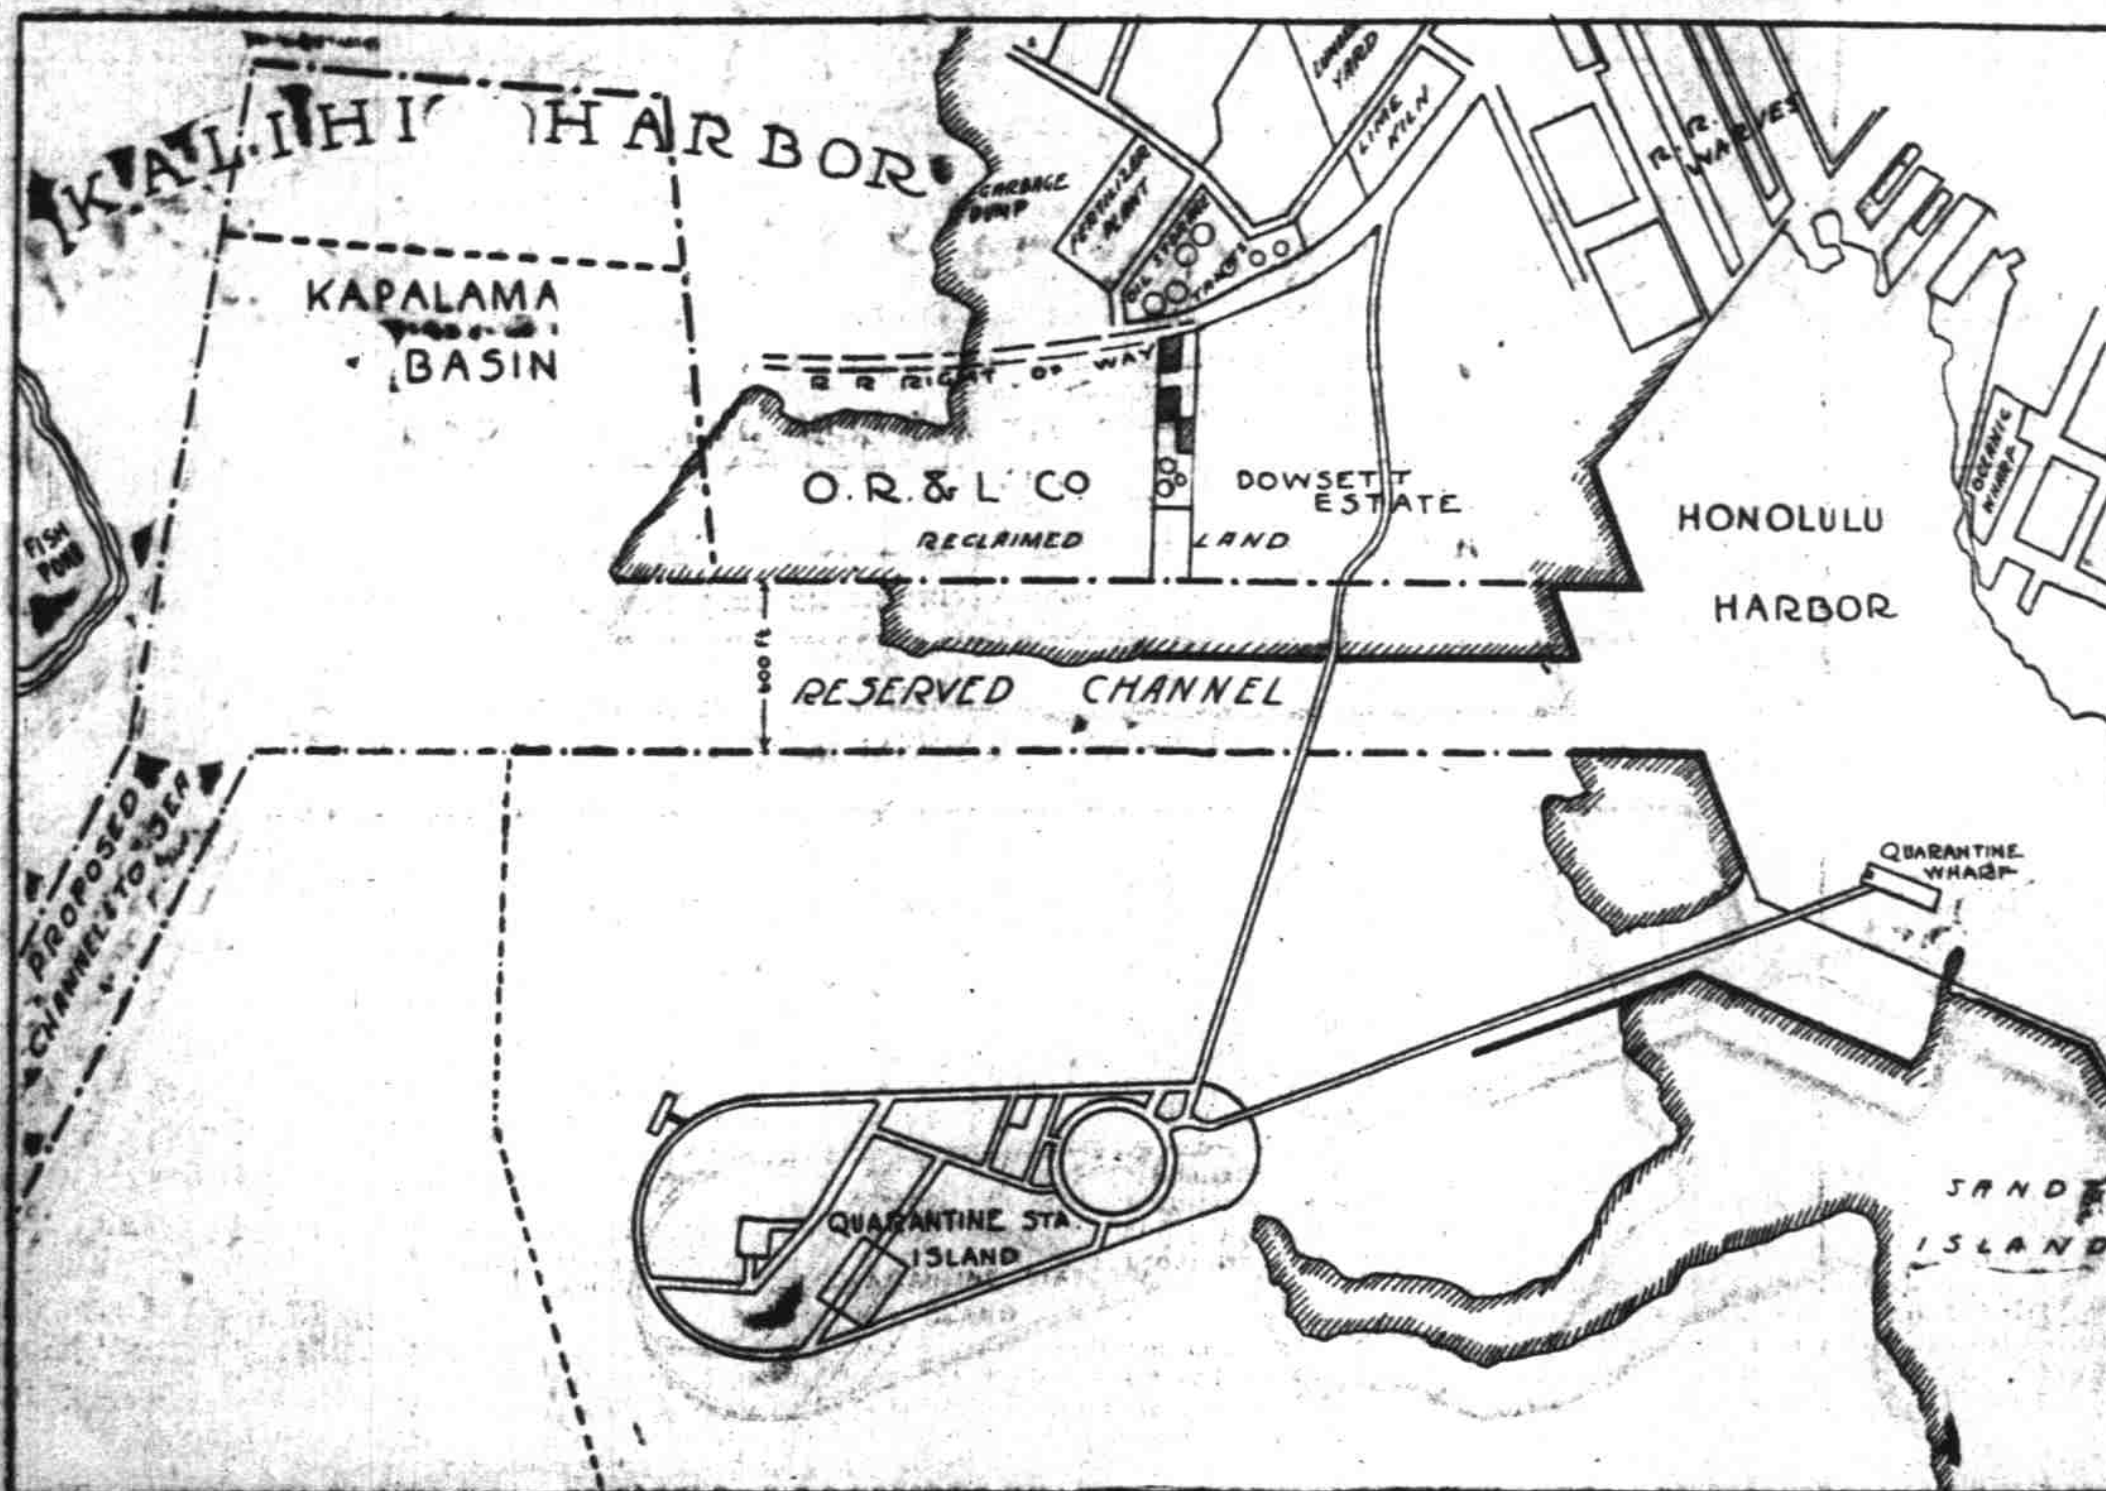

for the home treatment of disease were wonderfully dependable. True, they knew nothing of drugs, but their recipes for the roots, herbs and bark of the forest. It is interesting to note that Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound, the most successful remedy for female ills we have, was originally prepared for home use from one of these recipes. Its fame has now spread from shore to shore, and thousands of American women now well and strong claim they owe their health and happiness to Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound—advertisement.

GRAND DUKE DECORATED ON FALL OF PRINCE

PETROGRAD, Russia, March 23.—On receipt of the news of the capture of Prince Nicholas, Grand Duke Nicholas, generalissimo of the Russian army, was decorated with the cross of St. George, second degree, and Gen. Selimov, commanding the army of investment, was awarded the cross of St. George, third degree.

Rev. Alexander Mann, rector of Trinity church, Boston, announced that he had declined to accept the election as Suffragan Bishop of the Episcopal diocese of Newark, N. J. An "Amen" was given on the primary day.

Map Shows Importance of Kalihi Channel Deal

Honolulu harbor, Kalihi harbor, still to be developed, and the proposed Kalihi Channel are shown on the map above. The Dowsett estate property, the sale of which is announced today, occupies a position of "strategic importance" in reference to the Kalihi Channel, as it borders directly on this channel. It is also close to the oil-storage district and the factory and other commercial sites.

WAR-ZONE NEWS IS RECEIVED BY AUSTRIAN CONSUL

The Austro-Hungarian consulate in Honolulu has received by mail copies of several dispatches relating to conditions in the eastern war-zone. Among them are the following official wireless dispatches received from Vienna by the Austro-Hungarian embassy in Washington, D. C., March 5, 1915.

"In Russian Poland and West Galicia several advanced points in the trenches and near Gorlice were taken after violent fighting. Several officers and more than 500 men were made prisoners. In the Carpathians there has been tenacious fighting at Lupkow. The Russians attacked with continuous reinforcements. Their troops, driven forward three times, failed and the enemy suffered great losses. Several hundred dead now lie before our positions. In other sections of the front our troops repulsed the enemy's advances. Our troops attacked and conquered well defended heights where ten officers and 700 men were made prisoners. On the neighboring heights an additional thousand Russians were made prisoners. In south-east Galicia strong cavalry detachments which advanced, isolated, against a wing of our position, received a severe beating."

"March 10, 1915.
"On the front north of the Vistula, also yesterday cannonade continued. South Lufowans the Russian attacks were repulsed without difficulty. In a forward dash in the vicinity of Gorlice we captured still more men. The advanced positions are maintained in spite of the manyfold attempts of the enemy to retake them. The enemy kept up uninterrupted attacks. On the Carpathian front yesterday at several places the vehement Russian attacks which advanced as far as our barbed wire were repulsed with great losses to the enemy, and 600 of the enemy's men remained in our hands. Unfavorable weather during the last days demanded extraordinary efforts from our army corps. The conduct of our brave troops is deserving of unlimited praise."

"March 19, 1915.
"A Russian officer came up before the fortified position of our troops north of Nadworna, Galicia, with a flag of truce and imparted the following: 'By order of the Russian commander tomorrow forenoon about 1500 Jewish families which are today being assembled near Namiona and Tysmienicany will be sent out from the Russian line to the Austro-Hungarian troops.' As these Jewish families fear that they will be shot by Austrian soldiers the Russian officer came with the flag of truce to give notice of this. By this unheard of brutal mode of procedure the enemy doubtless intends to drive thousands of outsiders, whose bread he took out of their mouths and who are unhoused like a herd of cattle, before himself as a shield in order to approach our positions unobserved. A realization of this hideous plan which must be called the shame of the century cannot, in spite of the deepest sympathy for the poor victims of this barbarous arbitrary dealing, be permitted for military reasons, as there is no armistice for sending away Jewish families either offered by the enemy nor on account of approaching hostile reinforcements would it be acceptable for us. It must be explicitly understood that everybody approaching from enemy's side will be shot at."

"The following written answer was sent to the commander by the officer with the flag of truce: 'Under no circumstances will anybody be permitted to pass over to our lines from the enemy'

LEGISLATIVE NOTES

GOVERNOR PUTS NAME TO SIX MEASURES

The governor has signed six more legislative bills, creating new acts, as follows:

H. B. 11, as Act 15, giving the defendant the right to have his traveling expenses taxed as costs when court causes other than criminal, probate or divorce are dismissed, discontinued or nonsuited.

H. B. 54, as Act 17, repealing section 1119 of the revised laws of 1915, relating to trespass on railway rights-of-way.

H. B. 51, as Act 18, amending the law relating to licenses to slaughter and sell pork.

H. B. 74, as Act 19, relating to labor on Sunday.

H. B. 79, as Act 20, relating to holidays.

H. B. 132, as Act 21, appropriating $4500 for a homestead road on Maui.

"Therefore anyone doing so will be fired at. I pray you to inform Jewish families in Namiona and Tysmienicany of this. I also add that the enormous responsibility for this intended inhuman action to drive thousands of innocent inhabitants against our positions will fall exclusively on the commanders who gave this barbarous command, despising every such war use and this aid the more, since there is no guarantee that these innocent ones not only serve as a shield for the approaching Russia troops. I will take care to stigmatize this conduct before the whole world."

WORK FOR 1000 ON 3 BUILDINGS SOON TO GO UP

Contracts will be let in the next few weeks for three new buildings, which will give employment to between 500 and 1000 men. These buildings are the Hawaiian Mission memorial, the Young memorial addition to the Leahi home, and the Writers building. Bids for all three are in the hands of H. L. Kerr, architect, and the contracts will be let in the near future.

Tenders on the Writers building were submitted yesterday. They are for both a two-story and three-story structure. It has not yet been decided which it will be. The building, which will stand on Union street, north of Fort, will consist of a lower story of stores and one or two upper stories of shops and studios and small apartments.

Following are the bids for a two-story building:
Bowler & Ingorsen—$74,900, January 1, 1916; Freitas & Fernandez—$52,000, September 30, 1915; Honolulu Planning Mill—$72,990, 10 months; Lord-Young Engineering Co.—$76,000, 270 days; Pacific Engineering Co.—$82,716, January 22, 1916; Spalding Construction Co.—$84,220, November 15, 1915.

Bids for a three-story building are:
Bowler & Ingorsen—$99,000, February 1, 1916; Freitas & Fernandez—$52,000, September 30, 1915; Honolulu Planning Mill—$72,990, ten months; Lord-Young Engineering Co.—$76,000, 270 days; Pacific Engineering Co.—$83,716, January 22, 1916; Spalding Construction Co.—$84,220, November 15, 1915.

For the Leahi home the bids all exceeded the amount set aside by the Young heirs and no decision has been reached as to what will be done. The bids are:

Lord-Young Engineering Co.—$14,220, 180 days; Bowler & Ingorsen—$14,250, September 1; Freitas & Fernandez—$14,425, July 3; Bertelmann—$15,862, July 30; Pacific Engineering Co.—$16,217, September 22.

BLACKWELL FREE ON CHARGE MADE BY POLICEMAN

Thomas Blackwell, a negro chauffeur, charged with profanity and violation of the traffic ordinances, was found not guilty and discharged by District Magistrate Monsarrat this morning. Attorney Frank Thompson put Mrs. Blackwell on the stand.

The woman testified her husband was driving a car in the direction of Kaimuki on the evening of February 22, when the machine was stopped by Police Officer Almeida. She denied the charge that Blackwell had used obscene language in addressing the officer. She said that Almeida, however, was very profane in attempting to compel Blackwell to stop the car. Her testimony throughout contradicted the testimony offered by Almeida and Dr. Lin, who were the principal witnesses for prosecution.

Blackwell was called to the stand in addition to substantiating the charge by his wife, said that he given a car by the Schuman in the evening. Officer Almeida to display a badge of authority to the witness, and this to question the right of Almeida to stop the machine on Beretania street, as alleged in the complaint. Blackwell denied using profane language. The case was submitted to the court with argument on either side.

LONDON, Eng., March 23.—Russian, Belgian and British prisoners held captive in Germany, according to a semi-official census current in Berlin, now number 800,000 men and 9000 of the women.

HOUSE INDORSES BILL COMPELLING ARMY TRAINING

mons vote. Later Speaker Holstein said that he would invite the army and navy officers to address the house, the members sitting as a committee of the whole and the military leaders acting in a private capacity. Owing to the fact that "General" Kaysers, one of the members of the military committee, will be absent for a week, and upon his motion, third reading of the bill was postponed until next Tuesday. In the meantime arrangements will be made by the speaker for the addresses by the military authorities. The committee recommended technical amendments to the bill. These do not affect the body of the measure in any way. The report, in part, is as follows:

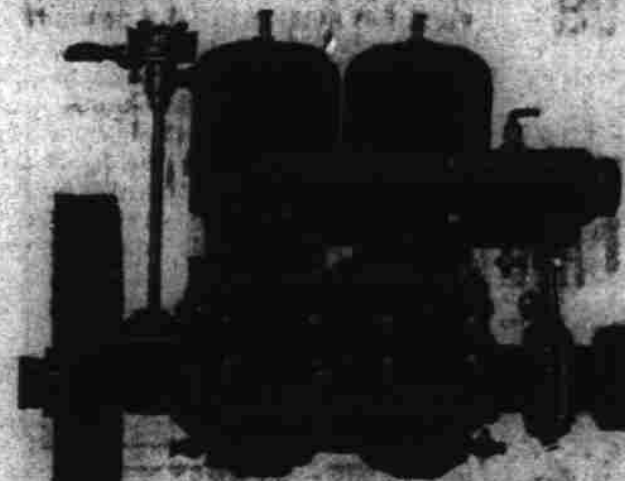

"Your committee on military, to which was referred House Bill No. 148, introduced by Representative H. L. Holstein, entitled, 'An act relating to the militia, providing for the military education and instruction of male citizens upon arriving at the age of more than 18 years,' begs leave to report that after careful investigation and interviewing several prominent men connected with the militia organization of the territory and the United States, it finds that it is not only beneficial to this territory from a protective standpoint, but is beneficial in the young men to be able to render first aid in hygiene. Military discipline is considered the world over as one of the best educations for young men.

"Your committee finds that the bill does not work a hardship on any of the citizens, it therefore recommends that the bill do pass."
